

Archdiocese of Dublin
Liturgical Resource Centre

Happy New Year!
Happy New Year and every blessing in all you do in your ministry.

New Year Liturgy Seminar

is on Saturday 26 January 2019 in Clonliffe College from 9.00 to 1.30. Each person can attend 2 workshops as all 4 are repeated.

1. Actions speak louder than words

Damian McNeice will focus on how we can better understand the symbols we see in the liturgy. How can we celebrate in a way that lets them communicate with their own inherent power in a culture that is bombarded with too many words.

2. More than Words

Trócaire's Lenten campaign will be told through the stories of three families living in Guatemala, Uganda and Lebanon. These stories are told through the lens of the fear they face (violence, hunger, never seeing their home again) and the love that people in Ireland can show towards them.

3. Welcome the Word

Following on a very successful Children's Liturgy Workshop in November, Patricia Carroll will now focus on the season of Lent. This will include suggestions for music and leading prayer as well as planning materials.

4. Sorry! The hardest word

Pat O'Donoghue will offer new ideas on the preparation and celebration of sacramental services of reconciliation during the Lenten season.

Please contact Grainne 01 8087554 or email litsec@dublindiocese.ie and let her know your choice of workshops.

Contribution - €10 per person.
