

Liturgy Seminar
Clonliffe College
Saturday 5th October 2019 (9.30am to 1.30pm)
Registration 9.00 to 9.30am.

1. Walking with...

Patricia Carroll and Donal Harrington will continue to explore the important journey of accompaniment to which baptism teams are called. Their themes will include the sponsoring community, prayer walk and the role of Godparents. Details of ongoing formation of teams will be offered during the session.

2. Read All About It

Dr. Jesse Rogers has a way of bringing scripture to life for those who hear her inspirational talks. A research topic of interest to her is 'Scripture and Justice' which will be woven into her presentation.

3. How Beautiful

Apart from his work as Master of Ceremonies, Fr. Damian McNeice has a very good sense of art and colour. He will open up the possibilities for creating beautiful liturgies with a biblical and theological underpinning.

4. Feasts and Seasons

Dr. John O'Keeffe published the second collection of Feasts and Seasons which he will share in a interactive workshop. He will also include references to Canaimís, the new collection of material for Irish Masses. Bring your choirs members with you.

5. Another idea...

for community Prayer Services when a priest is not available to celebrate the Eucharist will be shared by Fr. Pat O'Donoghue. His approach will outline how such a service can be conducted by way of contemplative prayer and scripture reflection.
